From the School Psychologist...

In October, most kids look forward with excitement to Halloween; however, it can cause anxiety for some children. This article provides some practical tips to reduce fear and stress for sensitive kids.

By this time in the school year, most children are used to their new classroom and routine. If your child is having difficulty with either the social or academic demands of school, you may want to let their teacher know. We can work together to address any issue before it becomes a larger problem.

Enjoy Fall!

Notes from the Library

“Harry — I think I've just understood something! I've got to go to the library!”
And she sprinted away, up the stairs.
“What does she understand?” said Harry distractedly, still looking around, trying to tell where the voice had come from.
“Loads more than I do,” said Ron, shaking his head.
“But why's she got to go to the library?”
“Because that's what Hermione does,” said Ron, shrugging. “When in doubt, go to the library.”

PTO NEWS

Once again, thank you for all of the contributions to the Capital Campaign. We will have a final total for the next general PTO meeting on November.

Final reminders went home this week for Trunk or Treat, taking place on October 29th. There is still space for trunks and we are still in need of volunteers for this fun family event! The sign up genius can be found at this link: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080b4ba5a722a64-2015>

We have tentatively scheduled a passive fundraiser with SkyZone in Kingston for Thursday November 9th. More details to come in coming weeks. Additionally, we have scheduled a fundraising day again this year with the Toy Box in Hanover. Tuesday, November 14 will be MES shopping day. On that date, 20% of all purchases made by MES families and friends - both in store and online - will be donated to MES PTO. That's 20% of ALL purchases, including gift cards. So get those Christmas lists ready and be prepared to support MES and a locally owned small business.

If anyone has any interest in coordinating comedy night (January), Scribbles and Scribes or a MES cookbook, please reach out to the PTO board.
